Perform great repertoire, make great friends, work with great musicians.

The Saint Cecilia Youth Orchestra was established in January 2016 to provide a weekly, high-quality orchestral experience for post Grade 5 instrumentalists in the North Yorkshire area. We meet every Monday during term time at Queen Mary's School near Thirsk. Rehearsals are from 6.30 – 8.15pm

Our current conductor Jeremy Carnall is Music Director of Dorset Opera and also conducts the famous Leipzig Gewandhaus Orchestra.

We'd love to hear from any post Grade 6 musicians up to the age of 21 who are interested in joining SCYO. Email saintceciliayouthorchestra@gmail.com for more information.

'Solid, assured opening. Excellent unity from the start. This is a listening orchestra...what a big confident sound from the strings, total commitment. Well done for choosing challenging repertoire.

Fabulous performance!
