Join one of our ensembles for a fantastic intensive musical experience

The North Yorkshire County Ensembles provide students with opportunities to develop their musical experiences, meet like-minded musicians and make new friends from across the County. You will spend time working with senior members of the Music Service and guest musicians and will rehearse and perform a wide range of musical styles and pieces.

Our ensembles

County Youth Orchestra – for instrumentalists Year 7+, Grade 5 or above

The County Youth Orchestra brass players (excluding French Horns) will also be working with the County Brass Ensemble and Big Band throughout the residential course. Players will audition for places on the residential course during the launch day on January 20th 2019. For a copy of your audition piece please contact Chris Hirst at christopher.hirst@northyorks.gov.uk stating your chosen instrument.

County Concert Orchestra – for instrumentalists Year 6+, Grade 3-5 standard

County Guitar Ensemble – for classical guitarists Year 7+, Grade 3 or above

County Youth Choir – the choir welcomes secondary school singers Year 7+

County Brass Ensemble/County Saxophone Ensemble/County Big Band
– Year 7+, Grade 6 or above

By audition only. For a copy of your audition piece please contact Chris Hirst at christopher.hirst@northyorks.gov.uk stating your chosen instrument.

The courses this year will be held at Harrogate Ladies' College between 7th – 13th July 2019 and there will be a Launch Day for all Ensembles on Sunday January 20th 2019 at Tadcaster Grammar School.
